BILL FAVORABLY REPORTED.

Appropriating Fifty Million For National Defense.

TO BUY SHIPS IN EUROPE.

Perfecting The Navy—Work at Washington Yard Pushed—Day's Views Of The Situation.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Mar. 8—The appropriations committee of the house of representatives this morning unanimously agreed to report favorably the bill to appropriate fifty million dollars for the national defense.

WORK AT NAVY YARD.
The Washington navy yard where a large establishment is maintained by the government for the manufacture of guns and ordnance material is working three shifts of men night and day on the big guns.

DAY'S VIEWS.
After a conference with the president today Judge Day acting secretary of state said, "we have no news either from Madrid or Havana. The situation may be said to look better. There is more quiet this morning. Our war preparations are being pushed, however."

PLANS FOR THE NAVY.
At a conference of the navy department today the secretary of the navy and the chairman of the senate and house naval committees agreed upon the chief's plan to put the navy in first class fighting condition with part of the fifty million dollar appropriation. Commander Brownson was ordered to Europe to report on the purchase of warships.

A Remarkable Amateur.
The local billiard players are all enthusiastic today over an exhibition of the game given at the M. and M. A. club rooms by L. L. Magnus last night. Mr. Magnus is not a professional at all but is a traveling man, representing a combination table company. A gentleman who has seen Ives, Shaeffer and all the notables, declares that none of them could touch Mr. Magnus. He was pitted last night against one of the local players who is considered a fairly good player and yet Mr. Magnus made 73 points while the local player made 3.

Several gentlemen made the attempt but could not so place the balls on the table that Mr. Magnus could not make his points. Among his feats was to make his ball jump over the counter wire and hit another; to make his points on the table and then have the ball leave the table and hit two more in the corner of the room.

One member of the club went up to see Mr. Magnus make a few shots before keeping an urgent engagement, but became so absorbed that he forgot the engagement and stayed all evening.

He Flew but Lit Again.
This morning as Sheriff Monroe, of Rowan county, was passing through the city en route to Raleigh with three recruits for the penitentiary, he spied an escaped convict from the Rowan chain gang standing in the door of the men's waiting room. About the same instant the negro, whose name is Hilder Harris, spied the sheriff. A look was enough. The negro flew. The sheriff notified the police and before noon Mr. Pearce nabbed the bird and he will be turned over to Sheriff Monroe as he returns from Raleigh tonight.

Boy Catches a Hawk.
On Wednesday evening last, a hawk flew down into the yard of Mr. Benj. Halliburton and caught a chicken. A rooster, which happened to be close at hand, however, objected to this proceeding and immediately made for the hawk. A tough fight ensued, during the progress of which, Siegel Halliburton, 10 years old, grabbed the hawk, carried him to the wood pile and dispatched him with an axe.—McDowell Democrat.

RIGHT ARM ARRIVES.

Remains to Be Seen Whether Big Guns Can Be Raised.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.
Key West, Mar. 8—The tug Right Arm arrived from Havana and is taking coal preparatory to sailing for Norfolk. Her officers say that it remains to be seen whether the big guns of the Maine can be raised or not. The idea of sending big wrecking derricks to Havana has been given up. Two large tugs will remain with the Maine.

Local Cranks Note.

The attention of the local rooters for the American game of baseball is directed to the following from the Charlotte Observer:

"There is talk of the University of North Carolina baseball games scheduled for Greensboro, being moved to Charlotte. An effort will be made to have the games here on the 20th of May. Charlotte cranks are of course pulling for them."

Steps should be taken to keep the games on the boards for this place. Greensboro is really entitled to these games and such support should be assured as will enable us to get them.

SHOT IN THE SIDE.

As a Result of a Free Fight on Cotton Factory Row.

In one of the negro houses on what is known as the cotton factory row, there was a promiscuous fight last night. A strange coon by the name of Jim Copeland, from Burke county, was being crowded by two or three negroes when he drew his revolver and opened fire, striking Sam Gorrell in the right side. The ball passed through the liver and lodged. He was attended by Dr. Dellinger, who dressed the wound and Dr. Turner was afterward called also.

One report of the affair said that one of the negroes crowding on Copeland had a knife in his hand. The Gorrell negroes are a bad lot, one of them having been shot in a barroom brawl before.

The revolver used was a 38-calibre and the wound is a dangerous one, though Gorrell may recover. Copeland made his escape and had not been caught up to noon today.

Some Valuable Papers.

Dr. Peacock yesterday added some valuable papers to his magnificent collection of North Caroliniana at Greensboro Female College, already the finest collection of the kind in existence. These additions are volumes of the Wilmington Journal for 1862, '63 and '64. It was during this time that the terrible yellow fever epidemic raged there and often the daily papers would not be issued more than once or twice a week. In addition to this the papers are of course valuable for the war news they contain. All papers published in the south during and previous to the war are in great demand because, for the most part, they have been destroyed. Northern dealers eagerly buy everything bearing a southern imprint of that period.

THE EWART INVESTIGATION.

Four More Witnesses Examined—The Committee Have Nothing to Say.

Washington, Mar. 7—Four more witnesses were examined by the senate judiciary committee today. They were W. T. Crawford, E. H. Fanning, Chas. Webb and A. S. Bernard. They were called by Senator Butler to give testimony in support of the charges preferred against Judge Ewart. According to a story current today, the testimony of the above witnesses was for the most part favorable to the judge. Friends of Judge Ewart say that most of the charges have been disproved by the evidence furnished by Senator Butler's witnesses. On the other hand it is said a clear case has been made out against Ewart. The judiciary committee is not talking about the case and no one can say positively what their report will be.—News and Observer.

Kid McCoy Whips Two Men.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 7—Kid McCoy tonight, before 3,000 people, whipped James Blackwell, of this city, Jack Tierney, of Terre Haute, without leaving the ring. He played with them from the start and ended both men with left hooks. From the ring he announced that on Wednesday he would claim the championship of the world as he had had $5,000 posted for six weeks for either Corbett or Fitzsimmons. He will defend the title at least once every six months until he is defeated.

Bryan in Montgomery.

NO COMPLAINT OF LEE.

Spain Issues a Semi-Official Note To That Effect.

JINGOES TRYING TO FORCE WAR.

Declares That It Is Essential That The Two Countries Should Reach An Understanding.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.
Madrid, March 8—A semi-official note just issued by the government declares that it has not received any complaint regarding the attitude of Lee. On the contrary Blanco affirms that Lee's behavior has always been correct. Nevertheless the incident serves to explain the origin of the ill will between the two countries. This is proved by statements attributed to Secretary Sherman by which the jingoes have created a belief in the United States that Spain is trying to provoke a war, while at the same time engendering a feeling in Spain that the United States demands open hostilities. It is essential that this double game should be ended to prevent the countries from going to war without either desiring it and without motives for it.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstorty had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstorty sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following:

A POSSIBILITY.

There is one possible result of a war with Spain that should not be overlooked even by the violent jingo who have been anxious for some time to see somebody else whip the Dons. In the evenly matched condition of the two navies the damage that Spain could do this country would be enormous. By no means all our seaport towns are out of reach of a battleship. The damage a fast passenger steamer armed for the purpose, could do to our shipping would be appalling. There would, of course, be a general decline in securities of a certain class and a rise in the prices of some commodities. This would raise up a large class who would cry for peace at any price. There would begin a series of the most violent attacks from certain large papers upon the administration and the leaders who were conducting active operations. Mr. McKinley is naturally timid and it is not at all improbable that after American commerce had been swept from the seas and Spain had done this country all the damage in her power, when neither side had gained a decided advantage, a peace would be hatched up and the United States would be left with little glory and a big debt. If honor demand it, of course there should be war but let there be a clear understanding that there would probably be very little glory in the early stages. With our vast preponderance of resources we should conquer in the end, if the war was pushed to a finish. But whether it would be pushed to a finish is doubtful. The holder of securities is not to be dispised in this, our country.

The whole country will approve the stand of President McKinley in refusing to recall General Lee. He has shown himself a remarkably efficient consul under the most trying conditions; he has never once lost his head nor has he been guilty of an indiscretion. His state and his old comrades in arms must regard his course with pardonable pride. And so does his country.

What has become of the war in Cuba? For more than a fortnight it has dropped out of the newspapers altogether, getting only an inch or so occasionally. Probably the insurgents are waiting to see whether this country will not save them a further waste of powder. It would doubtless be rather pleasant for them to be just spectators for a while.

The declaration of Brazil that she has some warships to be sold to the highest bidder shows that the South American is not wholly lacking in those business qualities which so distinguish his northern brother.

Spain's desire that Lee be recalled from Havana is probably based upon the fact that he understands somewhat more intimately Spanish affairs and Spanish methods of hospitality than is grateful to her.

Spain's demand for Lee's recall was evidently patterned somewhat after Mr. McKinley's ultimatum.

Some of the Pennsylvania republicans are warm for John Wanamaker to announce himself for governor. Mr. Wanamaker's admirers should remember the demands of the spring trade.

Two Italian deputies engaged in a duel and Signor Cavalotti was killed. It is only the Frenchman who may always be depended upon to save his honor and his hide at the same time.

A ginger pop trout is the latest hydra-headed monster to be hatched. The attention of Mr. Marion Butler is directed to this before its claws harden.

Mr. Sherman's eyesight has probably not failed so far that he cannot learn from the newspapers what is going on in the department of state.

Thomas B. Reed may be trusted to see to it that the administration does not ignore him so successfully as it has Mr. Sherman.

Secretary Sherman is allowed to busy himself with the bulletins of the bureau of American republics.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and had dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Why One School Closed.

Mary Matthews, a nice little girl, lived so far from the schoolhouse that she rode a little blue-eyed, confiding mule to the hall of learning. The teacher thought it unwise to allow the animal to graze about unharmed, so he attempted to club it away. The rest of the story is told in these expressive lines:

Mary had a little mule,
It followed her to school;
That was against the rule.
The teacher, like a fool,
Got behind that mule
And hit him with a rule,
After that there was no school.

December 10, 1897.
For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial trouble which, every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything and could take no solid food. Last spring he took one-half dozen bottles of Mrs.
Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled with the Wash, and it cured him. He has not had a spell since.

Johnston's Sarsaparilla
QUART BOTTLES.

This great blood pur-diseases by removing from the system, the conditions which produce them. It expels all poison and impurity from the blood. It acts upon the nerves as a stimulant, particularly upon those nerves belonging to the great organs of the body; therefore, it causes the heart to beat with greater force, the lungs to take in more oxygen and to expel more carbonic acid; it induces the kidneys to send off more of the poisonous ex-cretions from the blood; the bowels to have more regularity and healthfulness in their action; the sweat glands to throw out more impurities.

Our illustrated book of 36 pages will tell you what is the matter and what to do. Its free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

EDITOR TELEGRAM: Please help a good cause by publishing the following letter from the Aldrich Stone Company, steam stone works and brown stone quarries, which will explain itself:

SANFORD, N. C., March 3, '98.

Joseph M. Morehead, Esq.,

Dear Sir: Your favor of the 2nd at hand. We have just opened our quarries and started our mills for the season's work.

Since our former correspondence with you we have become the owners of the Cape Fear Buff and Gray Stone Quarries, at Gulf, N. C.

It is our purpose to make the monument for the James Hunter Memorial out of the buff stone, making the cap and base of grey stone. The combination of these colors is particularly successful; besides being perfect in uniformity of color and of great strength, there will be no difficulty in obtaining the required length or size.

The analysis of this stone shows its remarkable resistance to atmospheric influence, and its crushing strength 20,000 pounds to the cubic inch. We expect to operate our Gulf quarries very soon and the shaft will receive prompt attention.

While in Detroit a few weeks ago I mentioned this gift we propose making the Guilford Battle Ground Company to the members of our company. They are heartily in favor of the project and urge its hasty completion.

The general plan of the shaft you sent is very satisfactory.

Yours very truly,

R. E. Carrington,
Secretary.

This is a superb plan, or drawing, 12x12 feet at the base, terminating in a shaft and cap 12 feet in height; and is the donation of Messrs. Noland & Baskerville, Architects, of Richmond, Va. Completed in buff and gray this will prove a monument entirely unique in this country and one doubtless of surpassing beauty.

Yours, &c.,
Joseph M. Morehead,
V. P. of G. B. Co.

SHOUTED FOR CUBA IN CHURCH.

An Atlanta Congregation Rises to Its Feet and Declares for War.

Atlanta, Ga., Mar. 6.—The Third Baptist church, one of the most fashionable in Atlanta, was the scene tonight of remarkable enthusiasm for Cuba.

Dr. L. G. Broughton, formerly of Virginia, preached at the church for the first time tonight, and the edifice was filled by a throng attracted by his reputation for eloquence. He selected Cuba for his topic. The preacher reached his climax when he shouted:

"This carnage in Cuba has gone on long enough."

At these words the congregation rose to its feet, and Dr. Broughton added:

"Let American manhood vindicate itself."

Shouts and cries of "We will, we will!" and demands for war were heard. The men sprang on the seats and waved hats and handkerchiefs.

The minister stood dumfounded at the spectacle before him and shook hands mechanically with the shouting men who pressed around him. When the people had been sufficiently quieted to permit his voice to be heard, Dr.
Broughton said:

"Let us begin the work tonight by collecting money for Cuba."

This suggestion met with a ready response.

Louis James Coming.

Mr. Louis James will be seen here next Monday evening in a superb scenic production of Dr. Baird's great tragedy "Spartacus, the Gladiator." The version used by Mr. James is the original one which gained such fame in the hands of Forrest and McCullough and was purchased at great expense from the Baird estate of Philadelphia; by Messrs. Nagenhals and Kemper, Mr. James' managers.

Mr. James represents the school of McCullough Forrest, and the elder Booth upon the stage today.

He is the ideal of heroic tragedian with his massive yet graceful frame, his superb voice, the eloquence of his sweeping gestures and the robust vitality in his impersonation of such characters as Othello, Macbeth and Spartacus.

Of all the characters in Mr. James repertoire the foremost in public estimation is undoubtedly "Spartacus," the grandeur of the subject, the heroic mold of the man both appeal forcibly to Mr. James who is superbly endowed for it both physically and mentally.

Messrs. Wagenhals and Kemper have spared no expense or pains in giving Mr. James all the assistance in their power in the way of company, scenery and costumes. The play will be staged in a manner strikingly gorgeous even for these days when fine scenery is the rule. Every scene used in the representation is new, and specially painted for the occasion by Buehler and Lanphear of Chicago.

The principles scenes are the Arena which in the form of cycloramas shows the entire circle filled with the populace, a scene never before shown on any stage, the Via Sacra the great thoroughfare of Rome passing by the Forum and thence through the city, the Tapestry Chamber of Crassus, the Campana, a plain extending to the southeast and limited by Mt. Vesuvius in the distance, the camps of Spartacus and of Praetor Crassus, besides many other scenes of which the lack of space forbids mention. Suffice it to say that the play will be staged as it never has been staged before. The costumes are fine and historically correct. All this will be enhanced by tapestries, armors, properties, furniture, and the thousand and one details necessary to a perfect performance.

The company besides Mr. James includes Guy Lindsley, Collin Kemper, Thos. Cook, Alma Kruger, Florence Everett, etc.
